

FLAG DAY 2018 in DOUGLAS

Thank you all Douglas residents, business & organizations for flying out country's flag, Thursday, June 14. Over 60 property owners flew United States of America and Alaska State Flags today! The Douglas 4th of July Committee gives a special thanks to those who went further in decorations of red, white and blue on their properties. Please leave them up though July 4th, Independence Day to make our country's holiday a great event.

The Douglas Fire Fighters did the judging Thursday evening. Walk or drive around to view the owner's decorations at the following addresses & others. Please let them know that Douglas appreciate their efforts.
